

Programme Secretary's Report for 2008/9

This time last year I was elected Programme Secretary but what some of you may not realise is that the programme has to be organised up to a year in advance, so I'm sure you would like to join me in thanking Joy Auty who held the post for five years for organising this last years' programme. It's not an easy task to please everyone all the time but we've had a wide variety of subjects from Graham Sargeant at the beginning of the season talking about how he approached achieving his RPS distinctions , Ann McDonald and Joy Whiting from Chichester giving their inspiring first ever talk that included some wonderful images taken in India, and finally Hugh Milsom with his pastel colour landscapes. I hope you've enjoyed it as much as I have.

Last, but not least, I'd like to thank George Walsh for arranging all the judges for the year for the various competitions we've had.
